

...Presents a Hands-on Encounter with

POINTS OF YOU

The Coaching Game

Ever wish you had a life coach in your pocket, one who is right at hand when you're dealing with a tough situation, a complex but exciting opportunity, an emotional block? Have you wanted to take time to pause, to reflect, and gain clarity about significant issues in your life, but pressed on instead out of guilt, sense of responsibility, or just because...?

Unwrap the gift of time, personal and professional growth, and powerfully new perspectives on your life and world in an exclusive retreat with the developer of The Coaching Game. Come face-to-face with yourself in a uniquely enjoyable experience that enhances communication, clarity, and direction.

WHEN: Sunday, Nov. 16
WHERE: University School
2000 Edgehill Avenue
TIME: 4:00 TO 6:00 P.M.
COST: $45

For More Info -- to Register Contact:

Caroline G. Blackwell
615. 277-7480
cblackwell@usn.org

ABOUT THE PRESENTER:

Yaron Golan is a business/life coach who resides in Tel Aviv, Israel. He and his partner, Efrat Shani, responded to the needs of their individual and corporate clients by creating one of the most elegant and powerful development tools available in the human performance field today. Points of You - The Coaching Game debuted in Israel in April 2007 and is now being made available worldwide. Yaron's Nashville engagements are among the first in the US.