

ROYEL Circle of Harmony

A UNIQUE HOUSE CONCERT & SALON

Creativity, Composition and Conscious Conversation for Liberating Communities!

The “salons” in Paris in the last part of the 18th Century were home places where people came together for music and for the philosophical discussions that formed the groundwork for the “American experiment”. With this collaboration we are again creating “circles of harmony” where people can gather with great music, art and catalytic conversations on the animating principles of our Union. Futureman brings visionary music, and evolutionary passion. InterPlayers bring art-full improvisation. TAP members statewide bring practical organizing skills and expertise on a range of issues. We come together from diverse backgrounds to share our dreams, ignite our imaginations and unite our hearts in creating a better state, a better country and a better world.

November 19th - 6:30 - 9pm,
First Unitarian Universalist Church, 1808 Woodmont.

Circle of Harmony Concert- Roy “Futureman” Wooten of Bela Fleck and the Flecktones presents his tribute to The Black Mozart, an 18th century genius composer, violinist and swordsman. Program includes Futureman’s original compositions, a string quartet, horns, singers, a rap artist, a dancer plus others. Audience will be invited to participate in a salon conversation circle. Entertaining and enlightening!

Sponsored by InterPlay TN and The Tennessee Alliance for Progress.
