A Celebration of Celtic Music!

Daniel Carwile, the reigning U.S. Grand Master Fiddle Champion, is no stranger to the fiddle world. He has competed in virtually every major fiddle competition in the United States over the past 22 years. Daniel is not only comfortable playing oldtime, bluegrass, and "contest-style" but celtic and classical as well. In addition to performing, Daniel maintains a busy schedule teaching violin/fiddle. He has been an instructor at Mark O'Connor's Fiddle Camp the past 3 years. Daniel's most recent solo recording, Terra Nova, not only embraces his eclectic approach to the violin but demonstrates his mastery of it as well. Daniel will be accompanied by 5 time Tennessee fiddle champion, Jim Wood on fiddle, guitar, bouzouki, mandolin, cello, banjo and bodhran.

Bernadette hails from a big family of 10 in County Donegal, Ireland where she inherited her Mother's love of both Country music and traditional Irish songs. She left Ireland in 1988 and later moved to Nashville to pursue her dreams on the International music scene. Bernadette has been voted "Most Played" Indie Artist In the World numerous times. Bernadette's new song "The Green Fields Of France" on Rachael Records, is currently number 13 on the charts! Bernadette has performed at The Bluebird Cafe, the Ryman, Seanachie's, and other venues and with world renowned vocalist, Maura O'Connell. She was featured artist on compilation CDs with Ricky Skaggs, The Dixie Chicks, Alison Kraus, and many others. This is a wonderful opportunity to hear Bernadette sing heartfelt ballads of her homeland in a intimate environment. Bernadette will be accompanied by Jack Horner on guitar and vocals.
